

R&A Pfaffl 2016 Alten Reserve St. Laurent (Niederösterreich)

93
POINTS

Wet earth and graphite on the nose for now mask the black plum fruit that is so concentrated and juicy on the palate. The density on the palate has aromatic edges of cinnamon, but this needs to relax. Give it some bottle age, and velvety, rich folds of dark plum will unfold. Drink 2020–2030.

Reviews wines from Austria, Alsace and England

German-born but London-based, Anne Kriebiehl MW is a freelance wine writer contributing to international wine publications. She also lectures, consults and translates and has helped to make wine in New Zealand, Germany and Italy. She adores acidity in wine and is thus perfectly suited to her Austria/Alsace/England beat. Her particular weaknesses are Pinot Noir, Riesling and traditional-method sparkling wines.
