R&A Pfaffl 2013 Altenberg Reserve St.
Laurent (Niederösterreich)93
POINTS

Fine red-cherry notes are perfumed by the more decadent aroma of candied Amarena cherries. The palate reveals hints of conifer and white pepper, framing the mellow but surprisingly textured and dense body. This is sumptuous in oak and concentrated for a St. Laurent—but the fruit is at perfect pitch. This needs further bottle age; drink 2019–2028.
