

R&A Pfaffl 2017 Haid Grüner Veltliner (Weinviertel)

90
POINTS

Ripe pear and green moss notes combine on the nose. The very light palate has a salty miso-like backdrop of yeasty richness, cut by lemon freshness. This is dry, honest, refreshing and moreish.

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| PRICE | $21, Buy Now |
| DESIGNATION | Haid |
| VARIETY | Grüner Veltliner |
| APPELLATION | Weinviertel, Austria |
| WINERY | R&A Pfaffl |
| ALCOHOL | 13% |
| BOTTLE SIZE | 750 ml |
| CATEGORY | White |
| IMPORTER | Esprit du Vin |
| DATE PUBLISHED | 7/1/2018 |
| USER AVG RATING | Not rated yet [Add Your Review] |

ANNE KREBIEHL MW

@AnnelnVino

Contributing Editor

Reviews wines from Austria, Alsace and England

German-born but London-based, Anne Kriebiehl MW is a freelance wine writer contributing to international wine publications. She also lectures, consults and translates and has helped to make wine in New Zealand, Germany and Italy. She adores acidity in wine and is thus perfectly suited to her Austria/Alsace/England beat. Her particular weaknesses are Pinot Noir, Riesling and traditional-method sparkling wines.

Email: akriebiehl@wineenthusiast.net.

